Below, I’m including real prompts that ChatGPT generated for my own scripts.

I’m sharing them as reference examples in case:

- You run into issues generating prompts
- You want more control over how prompts are structured
- You prefer writing or adjusting prompts manually
- Or you simply want to understand how detailed they should look

These are actual working prompts used for Nano Banana (image generation) and Kling (animation).

Below are my real examples.

🎬 “Day two.”

Nano Banana Pro: bright exterior of Egyptian temple courtyard under strong white-gold sunlight, tall sandstone columns and hieroglyphs visible, translucent skeleton standing beside wooden stall with clay cups of frozen honey, wearing light sand-colored linen tunic tied with rope belt, loose linen trousers and leather sandals, small crowd forming larger than previous day, clean warm tones

🎥 Kling
Camera glides between columns toward growing crowd.

🎬 “Word spreads about the frozen honey.”

Nano Banana Pro: high angle shot from temple steps showing long line forming across marketplace, skeleton at center serving cups, linen tunic glowing softly in sun, palm shadows on sandstone ground, bright clean daylight

🎥 Kling
Camera slow top-down tilt revealing how long the line is.

🎬 “A priest buys six cups…”

Nano Banana Pro: medium frontal shot of Egyptian priest in white linen robes with gold collar and shaved head standing at stall, holding multiple clay cups stacked carefully, skeleton wearing light sand-colored linen tunic tied with rope belt, loose linen trousers and leather sandals handing him another cup, bright sandstone background, white-beige palette

🎥 Kling
Priest nods seriously as he takes sixth cup.

🎬 “…and tells everyone the gods sent you.”

Nano Banana Pro: wide low-angle shot from behind priest as he raises one cup toward crowd, temple columns towering behind him, skeleton visible slightly behind stall, wearing light linen tunic and sandals, sunlight haloing around figures, crowd reacting with awe

🎥 Kling
Priest gestures dramatically. Crowd gasps and murmurs.

🎬 “You don't correct him.”

Nano Banana Pro: tight close-up on skeleton’s face, subtle amused expression, warm white sunlight illuminating membrane texture, temple architecture blurred behind, linen tunic collar visible

🎥 Kling
Very small smirk. Tiny shoulder shrug.

🎬 “That's free marketing.”

Nano Banana Pro: medium shot of skeleton confidently scooping frozen honey into clay cups while crowd grows larger, bright golden-white daylight, sandstone architecture, palms swaying slightly, linen tunic and rope belt clearly visible

🎥 Kling
Camera slightly pushes in as coins drop into wooden box.

🎬 “Day four.”

Nano Banana Pro: interior of medieval stone treatment room, wooden table at center, bucket of water, rough iron tools on side bench, pale daylight entering from narrow window, translucent skeleton standing upright wearing wrinkled off-white linen tunic, loose linen trousers and worn leather boots, modern stethoscope around neck, villagers gathered around tense atmosphere

🎥 Kling
Camera slowly drifts across tools before landing on him.

🎬 “A woman comes in with a headache.”

Nano Banana Pro: medium doorway shot, tired medieval woman entering holding her head, simple wool dress, two villagers supporting her, skeleton wearing wrinkled off-white linen tunic, loose linen trousers and worn leather boots turning toward her calmly, linen tunic and stethoscope visible, cold daylight behind her

🎥 Kling
Camera tracks slightly as she steps in, room quiet.

🎬 “They want to drill a hole in her skull…”

Nano Banana Pro: low angle close shot of rough wooden table with crude hand drill tool placed on it, iron tip catching pale light, barber reaching toward it, skeleton wearing wrinkled off-white linen tunic, loose linen trousers and worn leather boots visible in background watching, wearing off-white linen tunic and stethoscope, tension building

🎥 Kling
Camera holds on drill. Hand moves closer.

🎬 “…to let the evil spirits out.”

Nano Banana Pro: over-the-shoulder shot from behind skeleton, villagers gesturing toward woman’s head while plague doctor nods slightly, stone walls and wooden beams visible, pale daylight, skeleton wearing wrinkled off-white linen tunic, loose linen trousers and worn leather boots standing between them and woman in linen tunic and boots

🎥 Kling
Camera steady behind his shoulder. Villagers arguing quietly.

🎬 “You hand her water…”

Nano Banana Pro: tight grounded shot, skeleton kneeling beside woman offering clay cup of water, wearing wrinkled off-white linen tunic and loose trousers, stethoscope resting on chest, soft daylight illuminating her tired face

🎥 Kling
Camera close. Calm hand movement. No rush.

🎬 “…and tell her to sleep.”

Nano Banana Pro: medium side shot, woman lying on straw bedding, skeleton gently gesturing rest, linen tunic sleeves rolled slightly, stone wall and window light behind

🎥 Kling
Camera still. He speaks softly.

🎬 “She recovers by morning.”

Nano Banana Pro: bright early morning light entering room, woman sitting up alert and smiling faintly, villagers surprised around her, skeleton standing slightly behind in linen tunic and stethoscope, natural pale daylight stronger now

🎥 Kling
Camera slow push toward her as she sits upright.

🎬 “They call you a witch.”

Nano Banana Pro: over-the-shoulder shot from behind skeleton again, villagers now staring at him with suspicion and fear, plague doctor in bird mask stepping slightly forward, stone chamber bathed in cold daylight, skeleton standing upright in off-white linen tunic and stethoscope, tension in room

🎥 Kling
Camera holds steady behind him as whispers begin.
